Please join us in congratulating Top Guard's President, Nicole Stuart, on being selected as one of "Influential Women of Virginia 2015." This award recognizes the outstanding efforts of women in various fields. The honors are given to individuals who are making notable contributions to their chosen profession, their communities and society at large. Lawyers Weekly stated "the recipients energy, ideas, achievements and commitment to excellence is undeniable."

A message from the President:

It was truly an honor to be selected for the Influential Women of Virginia Award. I attribute it to the remarkable people that make Top Guard the finest security firm in the Commonwealth. Please be sure to congratulate the many officers recognized in this bulletin and welcome Mr. Crawley to his Account Manager position. Finally, we invite you to use Coastal Virginia Training Academy for your training needs - including convenient payroll deduction payment for classes.

Sincerely, Nicole Stuart

Please welcome our new City of Norfolk Account Manager!

Mr. Tyrone Crawley

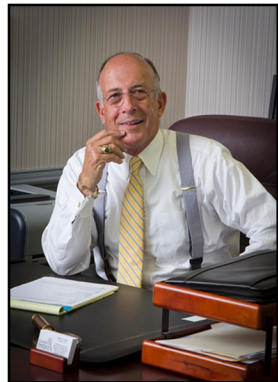

Mr. Crawley served our country in the United States Navy for 23 years and retired as a Chief Petty Officer, having served on five different aircraft carriers. He joined Top Guard in March of 2014 as a Quality Assurance Supervisor. A native of Orange, NJ, he and his wife Terry are blessed with two children, Terrance and Priscilla. Tyrone is pursuing a bachelor's degree in Business Management at St. Leo University and proudly serves as a deacon in his church. Despite knowing better, he loyally follows the New York Mets.

President Nicole Stuart joined the Hampton Road's Chapter of CREW, Commercial Real Estate Women.

CREW Hampton Roads is an association of members from various disciplines engaged in the professional practice of commercial real estate in Hampton Roads.

TCC Norfolk Campus hosted a Star Award event in the Student Center. Security Officer Thelma James received a Star Award for the area of Safety and Security and was presented the award by Dr. Boyd, Provost.

We congratulate Thelma for earning such a prestigious award and appreciate her professional and dedicated efforts.

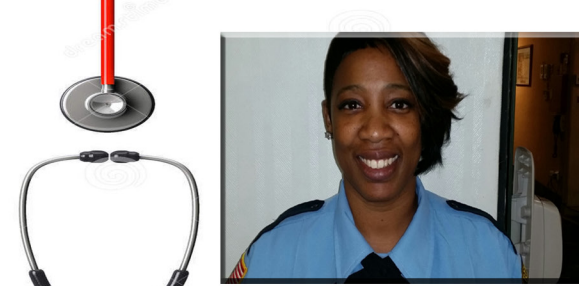

Security Officer Recognized by Client

Site Supervisor Aaron "AJ" Johnson was recognized for his high level of professionalism and dedication as an officer. He was notified at 3A.M. of a maintenance issue while off duty, and reported to the site immediately. S/O Johnson stayed at the site until all issues were resolved.

Officer Administers CPR

While on routine patrol, Security Officer Kentinao Roberts was dispatched by an alarm to assist an individual. Upon arriving on scene, S/O Roberts removed a belligerent tenant and immediately administered CPR to an unconscious guest.

Thank you S/O Roberts for acting quickly and deliberately!

Quick Thinking in a Health Emergency

Security Officer Kimberly Daniels observed an associate having a seizure. She quickly grabbed and supported the associate who was about to fall. She immediately called upon others to assist and had the nurse and supervisor respond.

Officer Richard Van Loan was recognized by the client for being an "outstanding officer." Thank you for being so attentive to client needs!
